

M.C. RECORDS PRESENTS
His First Studio Recording In 20 Years

GARY U.S. BONDS

Back In 20

M.C. Records has announced a June 1st release date for BACK IN 20, the first new studio album from singer Gary U.S. Bonds in 20 years. Back In 20 features special guest appearances from such friends as Bruce Springsteen, as well as Southside Johnny, Dickey Betts and Phoebe Snow. Back In 20 continues Gary's legacy as one of the premier "party singers" of all time, but also adds a definite element of the blues, which has been a main ingredient in his repertoire for many years. Bruce Springsteen plays guitar and adds backing vocals on "Can't Teach An Old Dog New Tricks," which also showcases Southside Johnny on harmonica. Johnny also sings co-lead vocal and plays harp on the blues classic, "Fannie Mae" and adds his harp to the song "Take Me Back." Legendary former Allman Brothers Band guitarist Dickey Betts lends his talents to two tracks: "She Just Wants To Dance" and "Bitch/Dumb Ass," which also features a blistering duet by Bonds and Phoebe Snow.

"it's a record for the times"
